1877, Apr 30.

Be it remembered that P. Lucy S Buckley of the city of New Bedford in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of this life, do make this my last will and testament.

After the payment of my just debts and funeral charges, I bequeath and devise as follows:

I bequeath to my sister Roxanna Hows a note of two hundred dollars or more which I hold against her.

I bequeath to Melissa D Buck my parlor furniture and carpet, consisting of one sofa, one centre table, all the stuffed chairs, one dark bureau, one large looking glass. I also bequeath to said Melissa D Buck my Gasburner stove.

I bequeath to Carrie Gould my light chamber set, consisting of one bedstead, four cane seat chairs one Bureau and the hall carpet like the Parlor carpet, one light sink one towel rack, one water pitcher and bowl.

I bequeath to Lizzie Hows all of my dark furniture and my second size looking glass and my dinning-room carpet.

I bequeath to Emily Burgess my red carpet, my large sofa and my extension table and my wooden furniture with rocking chair that are in the cellar.

I bequeath to Olive P Buckley my china tea set and my son George's large Picture and fifty dollars to purchase her a Black dress, also my son George's watch.

I bequeath to John Brailey my 2 large oil paintings.

I bequeath to Susan A Brailie wife of John Braley fifty dollars.

I bequeath to Rubin C Smith the sum of one hunared and fifty dollars.

I bequeath to my sister Roxanna Howe one third of all my remaining property.

I bequeath to Joseph W Buck, son of my brother Joseph Buck, three fourths of a second third and I bequeath to Roxanna Robbins one fourth of the same second one third.

I bequeath the remaining one third to the heirs of my sister Roseanna (deceased) to be equally divided amongst them. I mean by the heirs of my sister Roxanna her children.

I also appoint Joseph W Buck, executor of this my last will and testament without being required to give bonds.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand, and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be my last will, this nineteenth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy seven.

Lucy I Buckley.

On this nineteenth day of April A D 1877 Lucy I Buckley of New Bedford Massachusetts signed the foregoing instrument in our presence, declaring it to be her last will, and as witnesses thereof we three do now, at her request, in her presence, and in the presence of each other, hereto subscribe our names.
